Bangladesh allots Tk 572cr for jobless people for COVID-19 restrictions

Staff Correspondent | Published at 09:11pm on April 08, 2021

Bangladesh has allocated Tk 572.9 crore to help the people who have become jobless during the public movement restrictions imposed to contain the second wave of COVID-19 infections.

The allotment will be distributed among 1,24,41,900 families through the Ministry of Disaster Management and Relief, said a Press Information Department handout on Thursday.

Among the allocations, a total of Tk 450.44 crore was allotted against a total of 1000,9,494 vulnerable group feeding cards at upazila and municipality levels.
